

God Talk At Home

This Week's Kingdom Quest Lesson:

Jesus Came to Fix Our Broken World

Take Home Point:

When we feel broken inside, Jesus can help.

Drive Time Home

Tickler Question: What did putting the bandages on the paper child remind you of? (Jesus heals our wounds and takes away our brokenness.)

God Time at Home

Select questions and adapt for your family.

FOR STARTERS: Have a scavenger hunt! Let each family member search for one personal belonging that is broken. Have them bring it for a show and tell. As each person tells about his broken possession, invite him to also tell about a time he has felt broken on the inside. This means telling about a time when he has been hurt or disappointed

READ THE BIBLE: Read Luke 2:11: "Today your Savior, Christ the Lord, was born in David's city."

KEY VERSE: Psalm 147:3: "He is the healer of the brokenhearted. He is the one who bandages their wounds."

TALK ABOUT IT: Who is Luke 2:11 talking about? (Jesus.) What is the name of "David's city?" (Bethlehem.) The Bible says in Psalm 147:3 that Jesus heals our broken hearts. Did Jesus ever have a broken heart? Was he ever wounded? When and how? What are things he is brokenhearted about now? (Those people who turn away from him.)

How does Jesus heal our broken hearts and our wounds? (He took our sins and pain upon himself. 1 Peter 2:24: "Christ carried our sins in his body on the cross...His wounds have healed you." He provided a way for us to approach God the Father through his death and resurrection. Jesus is in heaven today seated at the right hand of God interceding for us to our Heavenly Father. Romans 8:34: "Christ has the highest position in heaven. Christ also intercedes for us.")

PRAYER POWER: Thank the Lord for sending Jesus to earth to live with us and experience our pain. But most importantly thank him that Jesus made a way for us with his death and resurrection. Pray for God to take away our brokenness.

Family Time Option

One day this week, try...

Jesus promises that when we all live with him in heaven that it will be a perfect place where no one will ever feel broken on the inside. Make a special family card that says, "Be there too." If each family member trusts in Jesus as his Savior, then when he dies, he will be in heaven. This card reminds each other "be there too." Have all family members sign in if they trust Jesus as their Savior.
