

God Talk At Home

This Week's Kingdom Quest Lesson:

Review: "Lookin' for a Leader"

Take Home Point:

Let Jesus be your leader.

Drive Time Home

Tickler Question: You have been learning about many kings in the Bible. Who is the greatest king? Why?
(Jesus. He is God's son and perfect. He rules a heavenly kingdom. He is the King of kings.)

God Time at Home

Select questions and adapt for your family.

FOR STARTERS: Line up dominoes so that when the first one falls, it triggers several trails of falling dominoes. Say: "This is like following leaders. Who are you lined up behind?" Name one person you know who is a leader you follow. This person should be from your school, work, church, or community.

READ THE BIBLE: Acts 2:29-31, 13:32-33. Optional: Read Acts 2:32-36 Jesus' right to kingship is established in scripture through King David and confirmed by the prophets.

KEY VERSE: Acts: 13:22b, "I have found that David, son of Jesse, is a man after my own heart. He will do everything I want him to do."

TALK ABOUT IT: How did David know that Jesus, the King, would come from his line or heritage? (Acts 2:30. David was a prophet and he knew God had promised with an oath that he would place one of David's descendants on his throne.) What other fact did God share with David about the Messiah, Jesus? (Acts 2:31b. He said that the Messiah wouldn't be left in the grave and his body wouldn't decay.) What phrase in Acts 2:34 indicates Christ is equal with God? ("The LORD said to my Lord, Take my highest position of power until I put your enemies under your control.")

Do you remember the consequences Saul received for disobeying and not following God? (Acts 13:22. God removed Saul and made David their king.)

Discuss the consequences of following poor leadership in school, in work, in church and the world. What qualities do you want to follow and have developed in yourself? What favorably impressed God about David? (Acts 13:22b "He said, 'I have found that David, son of Jesse, is a man after my own heart. He will do everything I want him to do.'")

PRAYER POWER: Pray that you will make the right smart decisions in choosing the leaders you will follow, especially choosing to follow the leader, King Jesus.

Family Time Option

One day this week, try...

Lifelong memories are often found in those silly times of play that the family does together. Play a game of Simon Says and see who the best leader is! Make a lifetime memory!
