KING REHOBOAM'S RESPONSES

RING:

Well, I am the son of King Solomon. People say he was the wisest man that ever lived. People wanted relief from taxes and you may have thought my dad was tough, but as thick as his waist is, is how big my little finger is. If he made things tough on you, I'm going to make it a lot harder. That's how we got two kingdoms, Israel and Judah. I rule Judah and Jeroboam rules Israel. I really hate Jeroboam!

POLE:

Oh, my Asherah pole! We put these on top of the hills so we can worship the gods of Baal. I learned that from my mom. She was a princess that married my dad, King Solomon, except she followed different gods. Dad worshiped what he referred to as the "true God."

GOLD SHIELD:

We were doing many evil things in our land so God allowed Shishak, King of Egypt, to attack our land. He went into the temple my dad built and took everything, even the gold shields my dad made.

HEART:

I was very sad after Shishak attacked our country and realized I needed to humble myself before God and receive his mercy* for not completely destroying me for the bad things I had done. I still never really devoted my heart to God, though. My son, Abijah, never fully devoted his heart to God either.

King of Kids Questions:

Ring:

Would you explain this ring to us?

Pole:

King Reheboam, what is this pole for?

Shield:

What is this gold shield from?

Heart:

What does this heart stand for?

KING JEHOSHAPHAT'S RESPONSES

LIGHTER:

In my early years, I burned idol poles, called Asherah poles; they were set up to worship false idols. I did this because my father Asa was a good king. He was a man who followed the ways of the LORD like King David did.

So, like my father, who also removed the places where people would worship false gods, I removed them as well. Because of that, God blessed me.

SWORD:

A messenger came and reported to me that the mighty armies of the Ammonites, Moabites, and Meunites were coming our way to wage war against my people and me. Everyone was frightened.

DINNER PLATE:

I knew I needed to ask for God's help. I called all the people together and announced a fast. We fasted and prayed. That means we ate no food. That is why the plate is empty. We didn't eat for a while because we wanted to put our attention on what God would do. I also said, as 2 Chronicles 20:12 records, "You're our God. Won't you judge them? We don't have the strength to face this large crowd that is attacking us. We don't know what to do, so we're looking to you."

SIGN THAT READS "THE BATTLE BELONGS TO THE LORD:"

After we fasted and prayed, God sent us a very encouraging message. The Lord said to not be frightened or terrified by this large army. You won't fight this battle. The Lord will, and the Lord is with you. At this time, we were not to fight. Instead, we were supposed to go stand and face the enemy.

KAZOO:

The next morning we got up and sang to the Lord and praised him. Then, we did exactly as the Lord said and went out and stood in front of our troops. We sang, "Thank the Lord because his mercy endures forever!"

The next thing we knew, the Ammonites, Moabites, and Meunites began attacking each other instead of us. They destroyed each other. They were defeated because the Lord set ambushes against them.

WATCH AND JEWELRY:

Because the entire army was dead, we took all their valuables. God gave us the victory. We again rejoiced about what had happened to the enemy and gave the Lord praise through our music and prayer.

After that, my kingdom was peaceful since God surrounded me with peace.

KING OF KIDS QUESTIONS

LIGHTER:

What does this lighter signify?

WORD:

King Jehoshaphat what does this sword stand for?

DINNER PLATE:

King Jehoshaphat, what does this empty plate mean?

SIGN, "THE BATTLE BELONGS TO THE LORD"

What does this mean?

KAZOO:

Would you explain the kazoo to us?

JEWELRY:

What do these fine pieces of jewelry represent?

King of Kids Questions:

Sword:

What does this sword stand for?

Sandal:

King Jehoram, what does this sandal represent?

Pepto-Bismol:

Tell us what this bottle stands for?

JEHORAM'S RESPONSES

Sword:

It reminds me of when I killed my six brothers. My father was King Jehosophat and everyone liked him. I was the oldest son, and when he died, I was in charge! My father and my brothers followed what they called the One True God but I would have none of that nonsense. I killed them because I did not want them around anymore. No one was going to keep telling me what to do.

Sandal:

Well, I married Athaliah, the daughter of Ahab and Jezebel. (Looks at audience.) That's right! Remember them? (Turns back to King of Kids.) They were the rulers in the northern kingdom and they were known for their wickedness. That sandal is a reminder that I walked in the way of those wicked rulers as the Bible states. Athaliah taught me a lot. She showed me there were other gods to follow instead of the One True God my father claimed. You also have a sandal because I walked down that same wicked road and also led the people of Judah in that way. I taught them to worship the other gods.

Pepto-Bismol:

It all started when Elijah sent me a letter. It told me basically that I had forgotten God and I was "out of control." As a consequence, I would have a disease that gave me the worst tummy ache in the world and then, after that, my stomach would fall out!

KING JOASH'S RESPONSES

FIRST "GRENADE"

Let me tell you the story of my family. Grenade number one represents my great-grandfather and great grandmother. They were Ahab and Jezebel. They did what the Lord said was wrong. They had a daughter Athaliah who also did what the Lord said was wrong and worshiped idols.

This grenade represents destruction for families who do not follow the ways of the Lord. When someone you look up to for guidance leads you the wrong way, it can lead to destruction. Today we know that families make a big difference in peoples' lives.

SECOND "GRENADE"

When my grandfather Jehoram became king, he killed all his brothers. He then married Athaliah who was the daughter of wicked Ahab and evil Jezebel. He, too, was wicked because he did what the Lord considered evil. He made illegal places of worship. This caused the people to chase after foreign gods. He led Judah astray. He did not teach his family to love the one true God. He was a wicked king and led the people away from God.

Because the people didn't have their hearts set on God, the Lord struck down Jehoram. The Philistines and the Arabs attacked him and his family. They took Jehoram's sons and wives. The only son left was Ahaziah, my father.

THIRD "GRENADE"

Yes. When my grandfather died, my father was made king. Now remember, my grandmother Athaliah was still alive. She was wicked and led my father to sin. He did what the LORD considered evil. My father's wicked ways led to his death.

Now my grandmother Athaliah saw this as her chance to rule Judah and become queen. She began killing all the royal descendants that might be crowned king. Since I am a descendant of David who was to rule the kingdom, I was in danger. But because I was just a baby, I was too young to know this.

HIDDEN CROWN

My aunt hid me in the temple to keep me alive. She had my uncle, who was a priest, take care of me. His name was Jehoiada. When I was seven years old, Jehoiada decided the time was right to crown me the rightful King of Judah. But, it was still dangerous because my grandmother was queen and didn't know I was alive.

WORD

Because my grandmother was still alive, it was very dangerous to crown me king. Jehoiada had guards armed with swords surround me in the temple. After I was crowned king, my grandmother tried to stop them and yelled "traitors." The guards took her out of the temple, arrested her and killed her.

HAMMER

I wanted to fix and repair the Lord's temple. It had been a long time since anyone took care of it. My evil grandmother had taken out many beautiful decorations and holy things and put them in the temple of her idol. We repaired the Lord's temple and even made new decorations of gold and silver. Now we were able to bring offerings to the Lord in his temple again.

STONE

My good and godly uncle Jehoiada died of old age. While he lived, I did what the LORD considered right. But after he died, the idol worshipers became my friends. I started to listen to their advice. They caused me to forget God and do wrong.

God sent a prophet named Zechariah to bring me back to him and change my ways. I didn't listen to his warnings and even had the prophet Zechariah stoned. I didn't want to listen to him tell me I was wrong.

After that, many troubles came my way. A smaller army defeated my larger army. I was wounded. Then, while I was sleeping, some of my servants killed me for the many things I had done against God.

King of Kids Questions:

Grenade #1:

What do these imaginary grenades that Gordy was throwing have to do with you?

Grenade #2:

King Joash, what does grenade #2 stand for?

Grenade #3:

King Joash, this can only mean more trouble and destruction!

Crown:

What does this mean? We can't see what's hidden under there.

Sword:

Would you explain the sword to us?

Hammer:

What did you do with this hammer?

Stone:

What does this stone mean?

King Hezekiah's Responses

BURNT TOAST:

When I became king, I wanted to stop all the false idol worship in the land and lead everyone to serve the one true God. I had the priests clean out the temple and prepare it to be a house of God. When they were done, we worshiped God with burnt offerings. We burned the best of what we had to honor God for giving us everything we own. We also sang many songs and played instruments.

AN INVITATION:

After the temple was clean, I realized the feast of the Passover had not been celebrated in years, so I put one together. The Passover reminded us God was with us and had been with us since Moses led the people out of Egypt many, many, many years ago.

I was very excited to celebrate the Passover and sent an invitation to the other nations to join us in worshipping God. Some people made fun of it, but still a lot of people came to celebrate with Judah.

BROKEN POLE:

After the Passover, the people realized again how they had been wrong to worship the false gods of Baal and Asherah, so they went out and smashed all the gods and altars. After that, all the guests returned to their homes in their own lands.

WHITE SWORD:

This is the best part. I was really scared because Sennacherib, the King of Assyria, wanted to take over Judah, but I also knew God was bigger than him so I reassured the people that God would save us. Sennacherib was mean and he wrote letters to me insulting the Lord. The prophet Isaiah and I prayed for God to save us and God sent one angel, that's right, one angel to destroy the whole army and the King of Assyria went home. That is how big God is!

King of Kids Questions:

Burnt Toast:

What is this burnt toast for?

Invitation:

What is this invitation to?

Broken pole:

Why is this pole broken?

Sword:

What does this sword stand for?

KING JOSIAH'S RESPONSES

PLASTIC SWORD

My father, Amon, was a wicked king. He was a man who worshiped and offered sacrifices to wooden idols. His officers killed him. Then the people of the land killed all those who killed my father, King Amon, and they made me king in his place.

PRIEST'S BREASTPLATE

No. This is the breastplate of the high priest Hilkiah. Since I was not old enough to rule the land when I was eight, the high priest Hilkiah took charge until I turned sixteen years old. During this time, I sought the Lord and did what was right.

SLEDGEHAMMER

I knew it was wrong to worship false idols. So, one of the first things I did was remove the false idols and destroy all the places of idol worship. I smashed the idols until they were just powder. I also burned the bones of the priests on their own altars.

MONEYBAG AND SAW

No, Gordy. I wanted to repair the temple. The temple was in bad shape and had been used to worship idols. We tore away the false altars. Then many workmen had to be paid to repair the temple. I wanted all the people to worship God there again.

SCROLL

While they were fixing the temple, Hilkiah was cleaning the temple. While he was cleaning, he found a strange scroll. He began to read it and realized it was the book of the Law. Moses had commanded the book of the Law be read once every seven years. The people had not kept this command and the book was forgotten all these years. Finding this scroll was like finding a treasure.

RED PAPER HEART TORN IN TWO

Wrong again, Gordy. I was very excited when I heard about the scroll. I had never heard the words of God's Law before. The scroll told of God's promise to bless people if they obeyed and served him. It also said God promised to punish the people if they turned their backs on him and worshiped idols.

I was very worried. My people had disobeyed God's Law and surely God would punish them. I humbled my heart and cried for the sins of my people.

WIG

During the time I was king, there was a prophetess named Huldah. Huldah was one of the few female prophets. I told the priest to go ask her what would happen to my people because they had not obeyed God's word.

The prophetess said that God would send great punishment to those who disobeyed his law and worshiped idols. But because I had humbled my heart and wept tears of sorrow for my people's sins, God would not let the people be punished as long as I was alive.

TORTILLA

I did not want to forget the words of God's Law. And the people needed to hear the words, too. I promised to keep the Law and to serve the Lord with all my heart. After all the people came and heard what the book said, I commanded the people to make the same promise and they obeyed.

So, I wanted to celebrate with a Passover Feast. We rejoiced together and celebrated for seven days.

King of Kids Questions:

Would you explain this heart to us?

Why do you have a tortilla?

Jeremiah's Responses

YOKE:

God called me to be a prophet at a very young age and I was scared, but I knew it was what I had to do. I spent many years telling the people of Judah they needed to turn from worshiping idols and follow the Lord. I stood at the gate of the temple and people laughed at me. Finally, I put a wooden yoke like that one on my shoulders to show the people that if they didn't turn away, they would be put under the control of their enemies just like animals are put under a yoke.

PIECE OF POTTERY:

There was another time I was trying to get the people's attention and they still would not listen to me. The Lord told me to take a pot from the potter's house and break it. I did and told the people how they, too, would be smashed and scattered if they did not repent.

SCROLLS:

The Lord told me to write down on a scroll all the messages that had been given to me. I called a man named Baruch to write it down. I did not stop there, though. I sent Baruch to the temple to read it since I was not allowed because people did not like my messages. Baruch went and one of the priest's sons heard the messages and thought the princes should know about it. The princes heard it and believed God's message.

The princes took the message to King Jehoiakim. I had to hide during this. When the king heard it, he cut up the scrolls and threw them in the fire! Baruch and I worked very hard and we made another one. This time it included what King Jehoiakim had done.

ROPES:

Finally, the enemies came to capture Judah. The king sent for me from prison where I had been put for all my preaching. I told King Zedekiah the truth, that the people would be captured by Babylon. The king was pleased with me telling the truth so he let me out of prison.

I continued to preach and some people became so angry with me that they threw me into a well. A man named Ebedmalech told the king what the people had done, so King Zedekiah told him to rescue me. He dropped ropes with cloths to pull me out of the well. I was treated better in the prison, but not allowed to talk to anyone.

Say after Lefty's response:

That's why they called me the "weeping prophet." I was so burdened because I kept telling the people to repent, but they didn't listen. So all the people of Judah were captured by Babylon.
